

Ebola Training for Healthcare Workers plus the Donning and Doffing of Personal Protection Equipment

Training Topics Covered

- Bloodborne Pathogens/BP Standard
- High Risks: EV is a Bloodborne Pathogen
- Ebola Virus/EVD
- Methods of Transmission
- What Is Your Risk for Exposure?
- Ebola - a viral hemorrhagic disease
- Treatment
- Prevention
- Infection Control and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Precautions in Healthcare: Standard Precautions
- Work Practices
- Updated Center for Disease Control (CDC) Guidelines
- New Guidance on PPE
- Putting on (“donning”) PPE
- PPE During use and Removal
- Proper Removing (doffing) of PPE
- Alternate PPE Removal
- Respiratory Protection and Respirator Fit-Testing
- CDC Testing
- Precautions for Laboratories
- Handwashing
- Sharps Disposal
- Decontamination of Work Surfaces
- Biohazardous Waste
- Cleaning
- Labeling
- Ebola Exposure Protocols
- Reporting Ebola Cases to OSHA

FOR MORE PRODUCT FROM DOCTORSMANAGEMENT

visit

shop.Doctors-Management.com

Call us at (800) 635-4040

DOCTORS[®]
MANAGEMENT
Leave the business of medicine to us

www.doctors-management.com